ABOUT ME

I am Ana Žagar a graduate visual artist and designer, currently pursuing a master's degree at the Faculty of Design in Ljubljana. I am passionate about interior design, architecture, and graphic design. I am a curious and creative individual, always eager to learn, develop new skills, and expand my knowledge across different areas of design.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Graphic designer

2021 – Current

- I have worked in graphic design, focusing on creating logos, corporate visual identities, promotional materials, and brochures for various clients such as NK performance lab, AB group, Misui patisserie, Family touch,...
- I participated in both academic and extracurricular projects, competitions, and workshops, where I developed my skills in visual communication, typography, and composition. Through this work, I gained experience with various design tools and learned to collaborate effectively with clients, from research and concept development to the final execution of projects.

Receptionist

2023 – 2024

- Worked at the reception and assisted in organizing events at Hotel Grad Otočec, a member of the prestigious international Relais & Châteaux association since 2010.
- Responsibilities included welcoming and assisting guests, managing reservations, providing information about hotel services and local attractions, and supporting the event team in planning and coordinating weddings, business meetings, and other special occasions.

Open House Slovenija in Open House Zagreb Ljubljana, Zagreb

Volunteer

2022 – Current

- Volunteer at the largest Slovenian architecture festival, Open House Slovenia where I organize and lead guided tours of various buildings across the country.
- In 2023, I was also invited to Open House Zagreb where, as part of a core volunteer team, I assisted with event coordination and was responsible for photographing the entire festival, documenting both the venues and activities.
